Poll Challengers and Poll Checkers

☒ What is a poll challenger?

A poll challenger is a representative of a political party who may make a request of an election board member to "challenge" any person offering to vote. The challenged person, unless the challenge is withdrawn, shall stand aside and may not vote unless the challenged person signs an affidavit in front of the election inspector that the voter is a legally qualified voter of the precinct.

☒ What is a poll checker?

Although there is no legal definition of a poll checker, they are commonly used by political parties to monitor voter turnout at a polling location.

☒ How many poll challengers and poll checkers may be at the polls?

Only one poll challenger and not more than two poll checkers from each political party represented on the election board are entitled to be in attendance at each polling place.

☒ How are poll challengers and poll checkers selected?

Poll challengers and poll checkers are appointed by the District Chairman of each political party represented on the election board.

☒ What are the qualifications of poll challengers and poll checkers?

Poll challengers and poll checkers must be qualified voters of the legislative district in which they are assigned. No poll challenger or poll checker may be a member of the election board.

☒ May poll challengers and poll checkers leave the polling place?

Yes. Poll challengers and poll checkers are not members of the election board and may be replaced at any time during voting hours.

☒ How close can poll challengers and poll checkers be to the election board?

There is no legal distance that prescribes the location poll challengers and poll checkers may occupy in relation to the election board. However, poll checkers may not interfere with the election process or with members of the election board. The election inspector may direct poll challengers and poll checkers to a particular location in the polling place.

☒ What does the North Dakota law say about poll challengers and poll checkers?

16.1-05-06. Challenging right of person to vote – Identification or Affidavit required - Penalty for false swearing - Optional poll checkers.

1. One poll challenger appointed by the district chairman of each political party represented on the election board is entitled to be in attendance at each polling place. Individual poll challengers may be replaced at any time during the hours of voting, but no more than one poll challenger from each political party is entitled to be in attendance at each polling place at any one time.
2. Any member of the election board may challenge the right of an individual to vote if the election board member has knowledge or has reason to believe the individual is not a qualified elector. A poll challenger may request members of the election board to challenge the right of an individual to vote if the poll challenger has knowledge or has reason to believe the individual is not a qualified elector of the precinct. A challenge may be based upon any one of the following:
  - a. The individual offering to vote does not meet the age or citizenship requirements.
  - b. The individual offering to vote has never voted in the precinct before, the name of the individual offering to vote does not appear in the pollbook generated from the central voter file, and the individual fails to provide reasonable evidence of residency in the precinct.
  - c. Except as provided in section 16.1-01-05, the individual offering to vote physically resides outside of the precinct.
  - d. The individual offering to vote does not meet the residency requirements provided in section 16.1-01-04.
  - e. The individual offering to vote fails or refuses to provide an appropriate form of identification as requested under subsection 3.
3. If after an election board member has requested that the individual offering to vote provide an appropriate form of identification to address any of the voting eligibility concerns listed in subsection 2 and the identification is not provided or does not adequately confirm the eligibility of the challenged individual, the challenged individual may not vote unless the challenged individual executes an affidavit, known as a Voter's Affidavit, acknowledged before the election inspector, that the challenged individual is a legally qualified elector of the precinct.

4. The affidavit must include:
  - a. The name and present address of the affiant and the address of the affiant at the time the affiant last voted.
  - b. The previous last name of the affiant if it was different when the affiant last voted.
  - c. A recitation of the qualifications for voting as set forth in section 16.1-01-04 and the rules for determining residence.
  - d. Notice of the penalty for making a false affidavit and that the county auditor may verify the affidavit.
  - e. A place for the affiant to sign and swear to the affiant's qualifications as a voter.
5. Written notice of the penalty for making a false affidavit and that the county auditor may verify the affidavits must also be prominently displayed at the polling place in a form prescribed by the secretary of state. An individual who falsely swears in order to vote is guilty of a class A misdemeanor and must be punished pursuant to chapter 16.1-01.
6. In addition to the poll challenger, not more than two poll checkers appointed by the district chairman of each political party represented on the election board may be in attendance at each polling place, provided the poll checkers do not interfere with the election process or with the members of the election board in the performance of their duties. The poll challengers and poll checkers must be qualified electors of the district in which they are assigned.
7. No poll challenger or checker may be a member of the election board.
8. The district chairman shall notify the county auditor of each county contained in the legislative district before the third day before the day of the election of the names of individuals whom the district chairman has appointed to serve as poll challengers and poll checkers in the precincts in the legislative district.
